

2006 INDIANA CHAFEE COMPUTER CAMP

The computer camp is sponsored by the Chafee Independent Living Program through the Department of Child Service (DCS). As part of the application process, we ask that you sign and return the following agreement which acknowledges that you understand the expectations of all participants in the camp and that you agree to follow the rules if selected to participate in the computer camp.

Application Agreement Regarding Attendance and Receipt of Computer and Accessories

If selected to participate in the computer camp, I agree to the following rules and expectations set forth by the host facility and the instructors of Ball State University.

1. I understand that the computer is not my possession until I have completed this workshop and have adhered to all the rules and expectations set forth by the university hosting the workshop and the workshop instructors.
2. I understand that if I do not follow the guidelines set by the university or the workshop instructors, I will not receive a computer at the conclusion of this workshop.
3. I agree to work with my DCS case manager to arrange transportation to and from the computer workshop and that my transportation arrangements will accommodate the multiple boxes I will receive at the conclusion of this workshop.
4. I understand that the Department of Child Services may share information on this application with consultants and consulting bodies. This release expires when I turn 21 years of age or am discharged from services.
5. I understand that the computer, supplies, and accessories received at the conclusion of this workshop are for my own personal use and are not for resale. I agree to use the computer in the way it was intended and stated in my application.
6. I understand that the computer, supplies, and accessories received at the conclusion of this workshop are my responsibility and any equipment requiring service/maintenance will be my responsibility (all warranties should be listed in the owner's manual).
